NRRA
NATIONAL RISK RETENTION ASSOCIATION

WHY JOIN NRRA?

2011-2012 NRRA ACCOMPLISHMENTS

NRRA's recent advocacy for the risk retention and purchasing group industry:

- Helped our members to resist unlawful assessment of fees and discriminatory registration processes by certain states
- Produced and supported the Risk Retention Modernization Act (HR-2126) in the Congress
- Persuaded the Governor of New Jersey to veto insurance legislation adverse to our members
- Assisted in defeating New Mexico legislation banning RRGs from writing Med Mal coverage there
- Caused Nevada to back-off from charging desk audit fees to RRGs
- Prompted our amicus briefing challenging enforcement of Missouri's anti-arbitration statute against one of our members
- Reported years of states' regulatory violations to the U.S. Government Accountability Office
- Challenged the GAO for allowing the NAIC to confuse interpretation of the LRRA
- Developed an integrated plan to rebut the California anti-"stop loss" initiative with the FIO
- Created a positive program to promote purchasing group advocacy
- Generated NRRA's briefing as amicus curiae (with multiple other coalition entities) in the Ninth Circuit to uphold our victory in the federal court on behalf of ANI RRG (hearing pending)
- Reconstructed the NRRA Website adding five (5) years of "Member Resources" materials
- Continued our active participation within the NAIC RRG Task Force and working group
